

PURPOSE OF THE WEBSITE:

This website is intended to assist the understanding of the prophecies in Scripture where God has revealed many things about future events leading up to the return of Christ to earth and the times after His return when He rules the world.

The series draws material from both the Old and New Testaments, in particular from the books of Daniel and Revelation as well as from Jesus' words recorded in the Gospels.

Each presentation is comprised of 90 to 140 slides synchronised to the audio commentary. There are also notes attached to most of the slides.

USING THE WEBSITE:

The site uses formats and styles that should display on any of the following devices:
